Tip! You can use the same pattern to make larger or smaller toys by using finer or bulkier yarn. Make sure to pick a crochet hook at least a size smaller than suggested on the yarn label and crochet tightly enough to achieve a tight gauge that will not allow the stuffing to show through the fabric. You may also need to adjust the size of the safety eyes, nose and joints.

Materials & Tools

- Yarn. I used DK weight alpaca and wool blend, 100 m = 50 g (109 yd = 50 g) / 8 ply / 11 wpi / 3: light. You will need about 75g of orange, 15g of brown and 15g of white yarn.
- 2,50 - 3,50 mm crochet hook (US size 2/C - 4/E) or according to the yarn.
- Polyester fiberfill, wool, wadding for stuffing.
- 9 mm (1/3") safety eyes and a 12 mm (1/2") safety nose or buttons, beads, felt etc.
- Two 20 mm (4/5") and two 15 mm (3/5") doll joints or safety eyes or buttons and thread.
- Yarn needle, scissors, stitch marker.

Choosing joints

Tip! You can use plastic doll joints, cotter pin joints, buttons and thread or even just thread to attach the arms and legs. My favorite are plastic doll joints - they are easy to install, durable and washable. Buttons and thread will work great as well, if you can't get your hands on any joints.

Plastic doll joints

1. Plastic doll joints come in three pieces - disk with a stem, washer and a fastener.

2. Disk with a stem is placed inside the limbs, pushing the stem through the fabric.

3. And then locked to place inside the body.

Button and thread joints

Tip! Make sure you use a very strong thread to attach the limbs – it will have to endure quite a bit of tension and can be a bit difficult to mend, should it break. I have found cotton embroidery floss, nylon sewing thread (doubled or tripled) or fishing line work really well.

1. Cut a length of yarn and draw it through the holes in the button.

2. Place the button inside a limb, drawing the yarn tails through the fabric.

3. Place the other button inside the body, draw the yarn tails through the holes and knot them together.
